CRANBERRY BOWL NEXT STOP

The red and white of Old Rochester rolls to Wareham on Saturday for their annual game in the Cranberry Bowl. The home team will be up for this one. Last year, in this meeting, the Bulldogs put on their finest effort. They scored early in the game to take the lead and by the start of the final quarter were leading by two touchdowns, 18 to 7. Wareham scored twice in the final quarter and added 2-point conversions each time to win the game. It was a battle royal with a thrill a minute. Wareham has a charging team this year with strong offensive punch. Old Rochester has shown strong defensive ability all season, so it will be interesting to see whether they can contain Wareham and generate an offense. Old Rochester has been concentrating on the power plays through the center. Against the Wareham line they will have to have some more aces up their sleeves. We're betting they will. This will be a great game to watch. It's the Cranberry Bowl at Wareham on Saturday, November 2nd. Game starts at 1:30.

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, OCTOBER 22

Allen King joined the 400 Club with a 407 and Hartleys Garage posted a 1714, a new high for the season in the Rochester Bowling League. The Garage swept 3 points from Hartley Saw Mill. Mike Renahan's 351 was tops for Dennis Mahoney as they beat off Herbs TV 2 and 1, and held on to top spot in the League. Lloyds Market marked up 3 points in their match with the Knotty Pine Cafe. Don Gifford's 365 paced Lloyds with Tony Lopes getting a 353 for the Cafe. Jay Hiller regained his form to pin a 362 triple as Hiller's Garage took 2 points from the Woodchoppers. Stu Lawrence topped the losers with a 365.

ART CENTER ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Marion Art Center was held on October 20 at the Center. New officers are as follows: Mrs. Charles P. Castelli of Marion, president; Mrs. W. Graham Cambell of Marion, vice-president; Mr. Charles P. Castelli of Marion, treasurer; and Mrs. Lionel Sequeira of Marion, secretary. Directors are Mr. Castelli, Mr. Stanley J. Nowak, II, Mrs. William H. Prewitt, Mr. William Beardsley, Jr., Mr. S. Willard Bridges, Mrs. John A. Perkins and Mrs. Irving Matthews, all of Marion; and Mr. Lawrence L. Lamarre and Mr. Van G. Sauter of New Bedford.

The 1963-64 program of the Marion Art Center has been partially outlined at a series of organizational meetings.

The drama committee has scheduled five productions for the year. The first will be two Edward Albee plays, now in rehearsal, to be presented November 22 and 23, under the auspices of the New Bedford Art Festival committee. To follow in December will be a children's Christmas production with Mrs. Phyllis Wikander

Charles Shumway may be called at Marion 750 for information.

An art exhibition committee is being formed. Art lectures and panel discussion programs will be offered throughout the year.

Registrations for the drama workshop are now being taken in both the starting and advanced groups. Anyone interested in joining or receiving information may call Mrs. Stanley Nowak, Marion 519, or Mrs. Warren Lenz, SKyline 8-2782. Theatrical workshop for starting group met on Thursday, October 24. Advanced drama group will meet on October 31 at 7:30 P.M.

At a future date, preparation will have been concluded for a concerted fund raising drive for the purchase by the Art Center of the building.

Yearly paid membership is the primary means of support for the Art Center, open to all area residents who wish to be active participants or inactive boosters.

Mrs. David Palamountain, South Street, Marion, Tel. Marion 1057, may be contacted for membership information.

MATTAPOISETT JUVENILE GRANGE

The Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange held its meeting Friday night with the worthy master, Doris Fearing, presiding.

Deputy Charles Fuller and the Juvenile master of Pocasset Juvenile Grange, Edward Maxa, were honored guests.

MATTAPOISETT JUVENILE GRANGE

Under new business: James Costa was installed as treasurer, Eddie Alves as secretary, Steven Kelley as flag bearer, Billy Sylvia as gatekeeper and Wayne Sylvia as a member of the executive committee. These officers were installed by the installing suite from Pocasset Juvenile Grange.

Worthy master Doris Fearing made the State Grange awards to Jane Harris for the State 2nd prize for the plastic basket project, Marilyn Lewis, first prize for her publicity book of clippings from the Standard Times and Presto on the activities of this Juvenile Grange. Doris received the prize for her apron, a project sponsored by the State Home and Community Service Committee. Second prize from the State for the best report sent in by Doris when she was Juvenile chairman was given Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange.

The lecturer's program was a very enjoyable Halloween party. All the members were in costumes. Games were supervised by Mrs. Dorothy Harris and Frank Jefferson, Jr. There was a grand march for judging of costumes. With so many unusual costumes, the judges finally announced the following winners: Susan Silva for the most original, Steven Kelley for the most horrible, Doris Fearing, the prettiest and Joanne Silva, the funniest. Mrs. Ruby Barber, Dorothy Fuller and Deputy Fuller served as judges.

Suggestions for the good of the order were given by Deputy Fuller and Edward Maxa.

Apples were served at the close of the meeting.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT AT OLD ROCHESTER

The Old Rochester Regional School is pleased to report that the Guidance Depratment has been enlarged this year to include three members. Until this year, Miss Barbara Crowe, director, has been responsible for the guidance program for the whole student body. News has just been received from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Department of Education, that the school has received preliminary approval for special amendment reimbursement under Title V, National Defense Education Act. This approval was based on a number of items, the most important one, the ratio of students to counselors.

This year we are fortunate in having Miss Rosalie M. Tirrell, formerly a counselor at the Burlington High School, and Mr. Edward B. Spalding who was in charge of testing in the elementary schools of Brewster and Dennis-Yarmouth. All the students at Old Rochester Regional High School will now have the opportunity to have personal counseling several times during the year, and parents are more than welcome to arrange for conferences with the counselors.

Since the school philosophy is based on individual students need, counseling 850 students in selection of subjects is vitally important, and with the ratio of less than 300 students to one counselor, the time available for each student has been greatly increased. It is hoped that more graduates of the school will be able to continue their education beyond high school.

In the last two years, the number of students furthering their education has increased from 60% to 69%, and those attending four- and two-year colleges have improved from 43% to 49%. The institutions to which our graduates have gone include business schools and colleges, beautician's schools, schools of practical nursing, retailing and technical schools as well as many colleges in Massachusetts, Maine New York, Idaho, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

J. Wood of Newtonville, president of the State Federation of Women's Club, was the honored guest and speaker. Mrs. Wood said that we must accept the challenge of the status of women of today, and the women must prepare herself to be a responsible American citizen. She must believe in herself and as a clubwoman.

Mrs. Wood has taken as the theme for the State Federation this year "Our Heritage" and the symbol, the American Flag. She ended her talk by stressing Patriotism.

Mrs. Wood was introduced by her hostess, Mrs. F. L. Dixon Yard.

Also speaking briefly was Mrs. C. Edward Ralph of Mansfield, Third District Director. She was introduced by her hostess, Mrs. Charles MacLauchlin.

Other honored guests introduced by their hostesses were as follows: Mrs. Marshall W. Ross of Mattapoisett, recording secretary of the State Federation, by Mrs. Albert Furnans; Mrs. FitzPatrick, president of the Third District Presidents' Club, by Mrs. Walter Clark; Mrs. William Fuller, president of the New Bedford Woman's Club, by Mrs. Linwood Lewis; Mrs. Sylvia, president of the Taunton Woman's

TRI-TOWN VETERANS' DAY PARADE

This year the Tri-Town Veterans' Day Parade will be held in Mattapoisett with the Florence Eastman Post #280, American Legion of Mattapoisett as host. This coalition was formed in 1958, and is supported by all of the Veterans' Organizations in the Wareham, Marion and Mattapoisett areas.

Any organization wishing to participate may do so or enter a float in the parade by calling John Raphael, chairman of the parade committee. Trophies will be awarded by judges of the parade for first, second and third places in each class.

125 Years Ago -- 1838

(From Dr. Robbins' Diary.) Dr. Robbins, the Congregational Minister, was living in the Norton Shaw--Blake house on the east side of lower North St., known then as Rochester Center Street The house was owned and lived in by Deacon Nathan Crosby, who each winter took a schooner full of men to Florida, live-oaking. Dr. Robbins' rooms were on the north side, upstairs, and at that time there was an outside stairway to provide him with a private entry. He wrote that they were "good chambers but difficult to keep comfortable," by which he meant difficult to keep warm in the cold weather. His diaries tell of the ink freezing in the inkwell, and of his carrying "thirty armfuls" of wood up stairs to feed his stove.

But if he suffered intensely from the cold, it was the good Dr.'s own choice, for he never married, saying he preferred his books to a wife. He ended up by having the largest and most valuable private library in the state of Massachusetts--some 5000 books and 4000 pamphlets, plus old coins and innumerable curios and trophies, many of them brought to him by the whalemen.

The Congregational Meeting House was then the present Grange Hall, but as these entries show, the parish was considering building the present church building.

October 1. Walked with Capt. Barstow, and looked at a site for a meeting-house. Very warm and pleasant. Attended the monthly concert. Thin.

October 2. Rode in the stage to Bedford.

October 4. Walked a distance, visited the sick, and gave tracts. Preached. Cool, but hear of no frost.

October 5. Warm. Thermometer at 72. Visited with friends.

October 7. The morning rainy. Forenoon meeting thin. Preached---administered the sacrament. Evening meeting, lectured. Afternoon and evening meetings full.

October 8. Two vessels went off for the winter (whaling). Visited the sick. Cool. Wrote a letter to President Van Buren.

October 9. Walked and visited and gave tracts. This morning we had a pretty hard frost. The first this fall. In the evening walked to Bedford. Slept at a tavern.

October 12. Walked to the Neck, visited, and gave tracts. At evening rainy; we have rain almost every day.

October 13. Visited the girl in a consumption; very low. Cold. Visited a sick man.

October 14. Attended the Sabbath-school. Preached with notes....evening lecture, full.

October 15. Wet and rainy through the day. Visited the sick. The young woman in consumption died yesterday morning.

October 16. Walked and gave tracts at Pine Islands. Rode to Sippican and attended the funeral of the aged Miss Hathaway. Had my new cherry bookcase brought in; a very fine one. At evening had company. Moved a large book-case and books.

October 17. Walked a distance and visited a school. Attended evening meeting. Quite thin.

October 18. A valuable man of twenty-eight died last night. Visited the family. Received a letter from Mr. Caleb Barstow, from New York authorizing me to subscribe for him one share, $75.00, for our contemplated meeting-house. Walked to the Neck, visited, and preached in the afternoon. Tarried out.

October 19. Was brought home. Attended the funeral of the man who died yesterday. Afternoon and evening a hard rain.

October 20. Last night the storm was violent. Brig LeBaron sailed whaling.

(Note: Caleb Barstow was the son of the shipbuilder, Gideon Barstow, Jr. He went to New York where he became a prominent banker.)

WOMAN'S CLUB HOST TO SERVICE FOR BLIND

The eighth birthday anniversary of the Warehar Friendly Service for the Blind was celebrated at the Rochester Woman's Club in Rochester. Autumn colors were used in the decor of the buffet table which was centered with an unusually attractive arrangement of miniature gourds, bittersweet, and chrysanthemums in a wooden bow and flanked by orange tapers. Lovely vari-colored chrysanthemums were also on the president table. A large birthday cake and assorted pastries and coffee were served. Arrangements for the pleasant afternoon were made by Mrs. Ethel Gary, president of the Rochester Woman's Club and a member of the Friendly Service for the Blind, and her committee, Mmes. Marian Peirce, Kenneth Winslow, Marian Church, Edward Bowen and Henry Smith. Flower arrangements were made and donated by Mrs. William Warburton.

Miss Barbara Silvia presided at the business meeting which was very well attended.

Miss Candace Snow announced that she would be pleased to loan her album of ten records of the Book of Psalms to any member who is interested. A discussion was held with regard to tax exemptions for blind people who own property. Interested persons may write to the State Division for the Blind in Boston and they will receive a letter which they may take to their local tax collector. A state law has been passed on this but it contains a clause that it is up to the various towns to decide the amount of the exemption.

A moment of silence and prayer was observed in memory of members who have passed away. Miss Amy Brewer sent regrets that she was unable to attend and sent best wishes for a happy birthday to all.

Special guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Lundberg of Rochester. Mr. Lundberg is minister of the First Congregational Church at Rochester Center.

Mrs. Pearl I. Freeman, secretary-treasurer of the Service, read an account of the vital statistics of the group and its history since its inception in October, 1955.

Guest speaker for the afternoon was the Rev.
